

HighReach Learning® Curriculum grows with your child. As your child matures, his/her developmental needs and focus changes. Research has shown that children learn best when skills and concepts are integrated into themes. HighReach Learning® incorporates the introduction of skills into meaningful activities within each theme. Listed below are the main developmental areas addressed in each curriculum during the year.

Curriculum for Two's

- Social/Emotional Development
- Language Development
- Small and Large Muscle Development
- Phonological Awareness: Songs, Rhymes, & Finger plays
- Color and Shape Recognition
- Problem Solving
- Self Concept

Curriculum for Three's

- Social/Emotional Development
- Language Development
- Phonological Awareness: Songs, Rhymes, & Alliteration
- Small and Large Muscle Development
- Color, Shape & Number Recognition (1-10)
- Counting & One-to-One Correspondence
- Sequencing, Predicting & Graphing
- Problem Solving
- Character Education

Curriculum for Pre-K

- Social/Emotional Development
- Language Development
- Phonological Awareness: Rhyming, Clapping, Syllables, & Alliteration
- Letter Recognition & Beginning Sounds
- Vowel Sounds (long & short with emphasis on short)
- Color, Shape & Number Recognition (1-10)
- Counting & One-to-One Correspondence
- Sequencing, Predicting & Graphing
- Problem Solving
- Character Education

